

Amtrak Station Ownership and Accessibility Responsibility in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) – July 2024

Summary

As of July 2024, this document shows the ownership status of all stations, as well as the designated accessibility responsibility in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), in the following elements: station structure, platforms, and parking. At stations where Amtrak has responsibility for ADA compliance, it does not always have ownership; Amtrak works with the third-party entities to design and construct those parts of the station toward achieving compliance. Note: Where an element shows “N/A” that usually means that an element does not exist thus no ownership or ADA responsibility.
