Population and Amtrak Ridership Growth 2009-2015

Greensboro, NC (GRO)

The Greensboro Station was built in 1927 by the Southern Railway. At its peak in the 1940's, over 40 trains served the station every day. It was closed in 1979, at which point passengers began using a small freight facility several miles to the west. The station reopened in 2005 as part of North Carolina Department of Transportation's plan to improve passenger rail service and its connections to other transport modes. It serves the Crescent, Piedmont, and Carolinian routes. In 2015, 123,080 passengers passed through the station and provided $4,818,740 in revenue.
